

CLOVER LANE PARTNERS LLC

Mike Mulhern is Co-Founder and Principal of Clover Lane Partners LLC, a management consulting firm committed to helping managers and supervisors develop and improve the people skills they need to lead teams and drive performance. At Clover Lane, Mike provides practical, experienced-based instruction through a variety of engaging workshops and programs, each tailored to meet specific client goals and objectives.

Prior to Clover Lane, Mike was an associate and partner for 31 years at the international law firm, Winston & Strawn LLP, concentrating his practice in labor and employment relations. He worked with clients across a broad spectrum of industries to develop preventative and risk-reducing strategies that advanced core business objectives. He was also a regular speaker on employment-related topics at professional and trade association conferences and continuing education programs.

For many years, Mike served as adjunct faculty at Benedictine University, where he taught graduate-level courses in human resources management. In addition, he has lectured at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management, the University of Chicago's Booth School of Business, the Graduate School of Management at Lake Forest College, and Loyola University.

Mike is a long-time volunteer teacher at Chicago Public Schools in conjunction with the Constitutional Rights Foundation of Chicago. Additionally, he has served as a volunteer tutor at the not-for-profit organization, Horizons for Youth, and on the boards of multiple community/youth organizations.

Mike received a B.A., cum laude, from the University of Notre Dame and a J.D. from the University of Notre Dame Law School. He lives outside of Chicago with his wife and three children.
