Political Update and 2024 Election

Chris Stirewalt will provide an insightful analysis of the current political landscape as we head into the 2024 election. He will break down the key issues, candidates, and dynamics that are shaping the race, offering his expert predictions on what to expect in the months ahead. Attendees will gain a deeper understanding of the forces at play in this pivotal election cycle.

Chris Stirewalt is a prominent voice in U.S. politics, known for his candid and straightforward analysis. As the political editor for NewsNation, he provides insightful commentary on the current political climate, Capitol Hill, and the White House, while also offering perspectives on America's polarized political system. He is the bestselling author of Broken News and Every Man a King, which explore the media's impact on society and America's populist tradition, respectively. Stirewalt's engaging storytelling and humor make his speeches both informative and entertaining.

In addition to his role at NewsNation, Stirewalt is a senior fellow at the American Enterprise Institute, focusing on American politics and media, and contributes to The Dispatch with a weekly column and newsletter. He co-hosts the "Ink Stained Wretches" podcast, helping listeners navigate media bias. Previously, he served as the politics editor for Fox News Channel, where he contributed to major political coverage and co-hosted the successful "I'll Tell You What" podcast and television show. A graduate of Hampden-Sydney College, Stirewalt began his journalism career in West Virginia.
